Dulldroms of July

editor

Actually, there are lots of events in July. They're just mostly spectator events, rather than we being the participants. We had the San Jose GP, Laguna Bike Moto GP and drags at Infineon. It's not known if the San Jose GP will return next year

We did have an autocross at Marina, though I was gone and missed it.....so no photos or story.

Coming up: Historics, Lotus Corral, Pebble Beach, Monterey auctions, Concorso, Quail and more. The Monterey Historics will be celebrating their 50th year, celebrating old Indycars and Toyotas? The LOG event is here, also.

Then early in September is the British Car Meet at Stanford, the last car event on that campus' turf. I guess they've decided to go more green and not have any more car events there. After all, their school mascot is a dumb tree. Across the bay is a nice axe for chopping trees down. I'll have to go borrow it.

Later in September, another autocross at Marina.

I'll have photos of the Historics, but miss the other events. If someone out there goes to Pebble or another one of the events, please take photos, write a short story and send it in. Or you're stuck with some photos of a trip up the Mekong Delta and into Cambodia, with Hendrix and the Doors playing in the background, another Asia trip, now through a purple haze.

LOG 27 Transporter

It's official, the transporter to LOG 27 has been scrapped! Sorry to those who were interested in transporting your Lotus to Colorado but there weren't enough people signed up to justify the trailer, so I had to cancel the truck.

As an alternative, there are some people who would like to trailer their cars to Colorado but would like to caravan with others. If you are interested in "tagging along" with others, email me at events-at-gglotus.org and I will collect all the names and try to serve as a coordinator.

Different people will wish to leave on different days, so please tell me what day you plan on leaving the bay area and I will try to link you up with another person (or more than one person!) leaving on the same day. If you have any questions or would like to submit your name, email me at the events address.

Thanks, and Happy Lotusing!
